Dear Sister Claudette Muhammad
AS-Salaam Alaikim

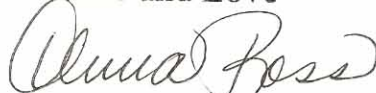

Greetings to you also in God's Love and Peace. I want to tell you how much I enjoyed you Book of Memories. I began reading on the plane ride home and I did not put it down until the next morning at breakfast.

I have never read another persons novel that had so much History, and depth. Their were times that I just let out a cheer of victory for you and also times I wanted to cry as if I too felt your pain and loss. Reading of the terrible loss of your Mother and Sister brought tears to my eye's. and I cheered for the battles won in Washington DC. You have been Blessed and you have blessed me and others that read your book.

Please forgive me for mailing out your money so late, while I was in New Orleans one of my neighbors took in my mail and I did not receive it until the 19th of July so I have enclosed a money order.

It was a Blessing from God that we spoke, and I will never forget you. Thank you for enriching my life

Peace and Love
